

Honored as Top 50 Catholic High Schools in America

Washington, D.C.—Rep. Bruce Braley (D-Iowa) released the following statement today congratulating Beckman High School in Dyersville and Wahlert High School in Dubuque for being named among the Top 50 Catholic High Schools in America by the Catholic High School Honor Roll.

“I am honored to congratulate the faculty, students, staff and parents at Beckman and Wahlert for this incredible achievement,” Braley said. “For generations, Catholic schools have played an important role in educating Iowa’s children. Both Beckman and Wahlert have set themselves apart, consistently graduating smart, well-rounded students who are dedicated to having a positive impact on their communities. I know this is true because I married one.”

Braley’s wife, Carolyn, graduated from Wahlert High School in 1975.

The Catholic High School Honor roll is a biennial list compiled by the Action Institute.
